

Health Policy

- Scope: Health Policy is intended to be a vehicle for the exploration and discussion of health policy and health system issues between professionals concerned with developing, implementing, and analysing health policy, health systems and health care reforms, primarily in high-income countries outside the U.S.A.
- Frequency of publication: Monthly
- Main target audience: Legislators; Health Services Researchers; Healthcare Providers and Planners; Policy Analysts; Healthcare Insurers; Health Related Industry; Healthcare Foundations
- Impact factor¹ (2014): 1.907 5-Year Impact Factor: 2.070
- Open access: The journal offers authors a choice in publishing their research open access or subscription²
- Pay for publication: Only for open access articles
- Prerequisites for getting articles published: Articles need to address the journal's scope and should be written in a non-technical style, which is understandable to health policy practitioners and specialists from other disciplines and in other countries.

¹Source: Journal Citation Report 2015, Thomson Reuter

²Articles are made available to subscribers as well as developing countries and patient groups through our universal access programmes